

EVERYMAN PALACE
THEATRE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Sarah Dee 021 4557826 / pr@everymanpalace.com

ADELE KING AND LINDA MARTIN STAR IN THE SMASH HIT

MENOPAUSE THE MUSICAL

Monday 21st April – Saturday 3rd of May

Tuesday 15th March 2008 - After 22 sell-out weeks in Dublin's Tivoli Theatre, the smash hit show Menopause the Musical opens at the Everyman Palace Theatre next Monday. Two of Ireland's favorite entertainers, Adele King and Linda Martin, star in this hilarious musical for a two week run.

Since its premiere in 2001, the show has travelled all over the world. The US smash hit has become an Irish box office sensation, with over 60'000 people attending the Dublin run. Adele King says 'I was born for this part, having first seen the show in Boston few years ago' Adele jumped at the chance to perform the Irish run of Menopause the Musical 'I insisted on a few colloquial changes to the script to make some of the lines funnier this side of the Atlantic'.

Armed with a cast of hormonal women, one-liners about memory loss and innuendo-laden versions of pop classics, Menopause The Musical is a hilarious celebration of women and 'The Change'. The all-singing, all-dancing comedy brings together four very different women at a department store lingerie sale, who have little in common but hot flushes, night sweats, memory loss, chocolate binges, not enough sex, too much sex, plastic surgery and more!

The show's stars, Adele King and Linda Martin, need no introduction to Irish audiences. A professional performer since the age of five, Adele King has won her own special place in the hearts of Irish people. From her days with Maxi, Dick and Twink to partying with Elvis in Las Vegas and being chosen to perform with Perry Como, she has built a huge base of loyal fans. Linda Martin is known and loved as a singer and TV presenter who started off her musical career when she joined the band Chips in Belfast in 1969. Linda went on to achieve international fame by winning the Eurovision Song Contest in 1992 with Why Me. She has also featured on the judging panel of RTE's You're a Star.

Menopause The Musical opens from Monday 21st April – Saturday 3rd May, Mon-Thurs 8pm Fri & Sat 6pm & 8.30pm. Tickets are €30 / €25 concession and €7 for students on opening night. Booking on www.everymanpalace.com or 021 4501673

ENDS